DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim(s) 7-10, 14, 15 and 17 are objected to because of the following informalities: "Withdrawn" should be "Canceled". Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim(s) 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. "A computer-readable storage" is not the proper language and it is defined in the specification as "a distributed fashion" which is equated as a signal" the claimed invention is directed to a judicial exception to 35 U.S.C. 101 (i.e., an abstract idea, natural phenomenon, or law of nature) and is not directed to a practical application of such judicial exception (e.g., because the claim does not require any physical transformation and the invention as claimed does not produce a useful, concrete, and tangible result).

MPEP 2106, IV. B1 (a) indicates that in order to enable performance of the steps on a computer, the article embodying the corresponding program should be characterized as a "computer-readable medium". As such, claim 16 would be considered statutory under 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claim(s) 1-3, 5, 6 and 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the computer-readable storage is running the method claims.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim(s) 1-3, 5, 6, 11-13 and 16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion
